

Poetry Saloon at Noon at the Sulzer Library's Lerner Auditorium Wednesday, August 28th (8/28/13)

Janet Kuypers is a writer and photographer who runs Scars Publications (<http://scars.tv>), which hosts two literary magazines as well as publishes books and CDs. She has had over 70 books published (including novels, poetry, prose and art books); she has sung in 3 acoustic bands, with radio shows and concerts in Chicago and Fairbanks Alaska. She has worked with 7 music groups to combine her poetry with their music to create performance art available for sale at places like iTunes or amazon.com.

Kuypers has been on multiple AM and FM radio stations in the midwest, and has even appeared on television in the midwest, both being interviewed and reading poetry. She hosts a Chicago poetry open mic (the Cafe Gallery, <http://www.chaoticarts.org/thecafe>), and she is also in a few performance art shows every year (details of her performances is on <http://www.janetkuypers.com>).

You can meet and greet Janet Kuypers, and buy her autographed books both before and after her reading.
There will be a brief curated open-mic
where Janet can hear your poetry.
Poetry Saloon at Noon
Sulzer Library's Lerner Auditorium,
4455 N Lincoln, Chicago
Call 773-742-9665.

